CHIBHODHO TOURNAMENT

The province has chosen your school as a host for the provincial (schools) ball games. Four sporting codes will be present. As the head of sports department, the school Head has tasked you to start preparing for the games which are one month away. Many committees should be put in place for the preparation which will be under the sports direction. To ensure that the games are completed in one day, more grounds should be prepared. Some schools will require accommodation at your school for one night. All the stakeholders should be notified of such a big event in the area. Budgets should be prepared and submitted to the Head and district office in advance for planning services.

- (a) State any methods of communication which can be used to make people aware of the event. [6]
- (b) Identify any characteristics of a successful sports director. [4]
- (c) What are the main duties of sports directors when hosting such big tournaments? [4]
- (d) In your own opinion which committees should be set up to help prepare for the tournaments? [4]
- (e) Contact sports have a high risk of injuries.
What measures should be taken to reduce them? [3]
- (f) Discuss security measures at such tournaments to protect the players and officials. [3]
