

Corrigé d'Anglais – Probatoire A<sub>4</sub> – 2014

Section A : GRAMMAR

- |   |                         |  |   |
|---|-------------------------|--|---|
| 1 | a. a weekb. learned | c. onced. have been cleaning         | e. nevertheless                             |
| 2 | a. enoughb. by      | c. himself/his fingerd. none/neither | e. was/has beenf. was/has been/had been |

Section B : VOCABULARY

- |   |   |   |   |   |  |
|---|---|---|---|---|--|
| 1 | a. sayb. withdrawc. crashedd. passworde. person | 2 | a. wirelessb. downloadc. usernamed. highwaye. cockpit | 3 | a. investigationb. importantc. apologised. sente. scrutinise |
|---|---|---|---|---|--|

Section C : COMPREHENSION

- 1 He wants to launch a product that promises at the last to bring digital entertainment from people's computers to their television screens without giving due attention to it.
- 2 Apple was 30 years old
- 3 Steve job didn't mention the products because he had announced that his firm would "computer' from its name.
- 4 People would not consider the products being launch as a computer since the will be in their pockets and living rooms.
- 5 Apple cannot call its products mobile phone because it has not settled its legal dispute over the name with Cisco, a network company.
- 6 The rivals congregated simultaneously at the consumer electronics show and were talking about Apple's decision to drop computer from its name

Section D : ESSAY

- Topic 1 and Topic 2 are expository and argumentative
- Topic 3 is an article